JANUARY MEETING MOVED TO FEBRUARY 2ND

NEWS FROM THE PRESIDENT

Happy New Year. Guess the Mayans had it wrong after all. The good news is that means we get to carve our way through another year. The even better news is that we had a great time at the Christmas Party. Dick Guerrero won the first Nativity Scene and Eddie Brook won the auction for the second one. The gift give away was a lot of fun as always with the stealing back and forth hot and heavy. At the end I was given a walking stick with several carvings from members on it. I'll bring it to the meetings and hopefully I can convince all of you to add to it. Thank you for a wonderful gift.

Dues will be $10 again this year (couples are just $10 for both) and are due at the January meeting. Bring Cash! ☺

I'm sure there has been a lot of carving done over the last three months so make sure you bring something in for SHOW AND TELL.

I'm looking forward to seeing you all at the January meeting.

Keep the chips flying,

Tom (The new Sherriff in town) Noller

WHAT'S IN STORE FOR THE FEBRUARY 2nd MEETING?

We're going to get in touch with our whimsical side this month. These little basswood houses can be modifide to reflect your own creativity. So come on out for the first meeting of the year and lets make chips.
